

FIRST PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE
PENNSYLVANIA COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT (CDBG) PROGRAM
COUNTY OF BLAIR - FISCAL YEAR 2020

The County of Blair has begun to prepare its FY2020 CDBG application to the Pennsylvania Development of Community & Economic Development (DCED). Six (6) entitlement communities [Hollidaysburg and Tyrone Boroughs, Antis, Blair, Frankstown and Greenfield Townships] along with the County of Blair under one application. The County of Blair will receive an allocation of $905,802 for FY2020.

Pennsylvania CDBG funds may be used for a broad range of activities that include, but not limited to: community facilities, public service, removal of architectural barriers, property acquisition, fair housing activities, housing rehabilitation, water supply, drainage and sanitary sewer improvements and associated planning and administration. The primary objectives of the Pennsylvania CDBG Program are: benefit to low-to-moderate income persons, elimination of slums and blight and urgent need. At least 70% of the funds available for FY2020 will be used to benefit low-to-moderate income persons. Additionally, the County of Blair will be responsible for replacing all low-to-moderate income housing units that are demolished or converted as a result of CDBG funded activities.

The Blair County Board of Commissioners and municipal officials, encourage interested citizens to attend any of the scheduled public hearings to provide their community's needs and present their views upon the use of fiscal year 2020 CDBG funds or upon the use of any prior year CDBG funds. The Blair County Board of Commissioners will consider all comments received during the public participation process prior to the submission of the FY2020 CDBG application to DCED.

The County of Blair has scheduled a series of seven (7) public hearings for residents, agencies and/or organizations who are interested in expressing their views or community's needs. The FY2020 CDBG public hearings will be held in conjunction with the County's CDBG-CV public hearings. Due to COVID-19 public hearings will be conducted virtually via telephone conference.
