When disaster strikes, our community depends on more than just first responders. We rely on neighbors helping neighbors— people just like you.

We're currently seeking dedicated volunteers to support our emergency management team in the aftermath of disasters. Whether it is helping with shelter operations, distributing supplies, providing emotional support, or assisting with cleanup, your time and compassion can make a life-changing difference.

No Experience? No Problem.

Training is provided.

All we need is your commitment, reliability, and willingness to help when others need it most.

Volunteer Roles May Include:

- Assisting in shelters or emergency centers
- Delivering food, water, and essential supplies
- Helping with damage assessments
- Supporting logistics and communications
- Offering care and comfort to survivors
